CB RICHARD ELLIS TO PARTNER WITH HOMEAID TO PROVIDE HOUSING FOR HOMELESS IN LAS VEGAS

CB Richard Ellis Launches Shelter Program and September 2010 “Get Out and Give Back” BuildMonth

Las Vegas – September 9, 2010 – CB Richard Ellis has announced that it will partner with HomeAid to provide housing for the homeless in Las Vegas during its September 2010 “Get Out and Give Back” BuildMonth through CBRE Cares, the company’s national corporate philanthropy program. More than 20 CBRE offices will participate in rebuilding projects during this month of giving back, which will benefit local communities in partnership with HomeAid and Rebuilding Together, CBRE Shelter Program charitable partners, as well as Habitat for Humanity.

On September 24, 2010, more than 25 CBRE volunteers will partner with the local HomeAid chapter at St. Jude’s Ranch in Boulder City in an effort to assist St. Jude’s Ranch with a campus-wide clean up of all their landscaping and grounds. While residents of the campus are responsible for the daily maintenance and upkeep of their homes, the common areas and courtyards have become overgrown and need to be attended to in order to keep the 40-acre campus neat in appearance.

ValleyCrest Landscape Maintenance, a local landscaping company which has been serving the community for over 60 years, is partnering with CBRE on the project. ValleyCrest will provide oversight and direction to the volunteers, and will also handle the aspects of the project that require professional landscaping expertise and equipment, such as trimming of tall trees.

This project is one of several U.S. projects that will be spearheaded by CB Richard Ellis offices in California, Colorado, Washington, D.C., Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Tennessee, Texas and Washington during the company’s “Get Out and Give Back” BuildMonth in September. CBRE will provide employees with paid time off for their participation in the BuildMonth projects.

“This new and exciting program aims to build on company and individual contributions to our communities by more closely aligning our business with our giving endeavors. By partnering with HomeAid, we are providing real estate solutions to assist those in need of a helping hand,” said Marlene Fujita Winkel, President of the Las Vegas’ CBRE Cares Chapter. Additionally, choosing St. Jude’s Ranch as the recipient of these volunteering efforts was an easy choice as Michael Parks of our Global Gaming Group serves on the Board of Directors and we wanted to support him and this worthwhile cause.

“HomeAid Southern Nevada is delighted to have the help of volunteers from the Las Vegas office of CB Richard Ellis through the CBRE Cares program to update the facilities at St. Jude’s Ranch, a transitional housing facility for suddenly homeless children, located in Boulder City. Their assistance at this critical time will enable us to continue forward with services to the residents of St. Jude’s Ranch and enable them to better meet the needs of their clients,” said Kathleen Dye, President of HomeAid of Southern Nevada.

In 2010, CB Richard Ellis selected HomeAid as one of two charitable partners to implement the company’s Shelter Program. Rebuilding Together—an organization working to preserve affordable homeownership and revitalize neighborhoods by providing complimentary home repair and renovation services to those in need—was also chosen as one of CB Richard Ellis’ partners. This collaborative effort is designed to improve the housing options for low-income communities across the country. To find out more about the partnership, visit www.cbre.com/cbrecares.

CBRE Cares is governed and executed by the CB Richard Ellis Foundation, an independent, non-profit, public-benefit corporation that funds CB Richard Ellis’ philanthropic initiatives.
